

This separate document has been created as an appendix to the FMJD statutes and internal regulations in 2015 and consists of the texts about special FMJD awards which were present in the old version of the FMJD statutes and bye laws.

The General Assembly may award the titles of Member of Honour, Eminent Member of Honour and Extraordinary Member of Honour.

1. Member of Honour

The title of Member of Honour can be awarded to the following persons:

- Member of the Council of the FMJD for at least 4 years, provided the person has achieved an outstanding contribution
- Continental Co-ordinator or Member the Board of a Continental Confederation for at least 8 years, provided the person has achieved an outstanding contribution and has also actively taken part to the action of the FMJD
- Member of a Section or a Commission for at least 12 years, provided the person has achieved an outstanding contribution and has also actively taken part to the action of the FMJD
- Any other person who has achieved an outstanding contribution and has actively taken part to the action of the FMJD, but who does not respect any of the previous conditions.

2. Eminent Member of Honour

The title of Eminent Member of Honour can be awarded to the following persons:

- Member of the Council of the FMJD for at least 8 years
- Continental Co-ordinator or Member of the of a Continental Confederation for at least 12 years, provided the person has actively taken part to the action of the FMJD
- Member of a Section or a Commission for at least 20 years, provided the person has actively taken part to the action of the FMJD
- Any other person who has achieved a particularly outstanding contribution and has shown a great involvement in the action of the FMJD, but who does not respect any of the previous conditions.

Each Member of Honour and Eminent Member of Honour remains a consultant of the Council if asked.

3. Extraordinary Member of Honour

The title of Extraordinary Member of Honour can be awarded to a national federation with outstanding contributions to the work of the FMJD like organizing many official FMJD tournaments and other kinds of support for the FMJD.

4. Sponsoring member (“Membre bienfaiteur”)

The title of sponsoring member (“membre bienfaiteur”) may be given by the council to a person or an institution to recognize exceptional contributions to the work of the FMJD.

5. Distinguished Career Prize

The distinguished career prize may be awarded by the General Assembly to honour those people (not posthumous) that gave extraordinary efforts to place the game of draughts in the picture, nationally and/or internationally.

The high level contribution could be on technical basis, Public Relations, international prestige, propaganda, performances like many national titles, etc.

All awards will consist of a diploma and / or a similar trophy.